

Satelite radio should be allowed to broadcast any content. You should worry more about business competition from overseas than fair competition from within the USA. They shouldn't worry. I'd rather listen to a live voice than a computer generated one.